Boasting a smartly finished layout combined with crisp, coastal style, this 97sqm security apartment enjoys an elevated ground floor position with level entry from the street. Set in a contemporary and well-maintained complex, it's a terrific choice for first-time owners, downsizers and investors alike. Inside, you'll find an exceptionally well-designed floorplan with integrated living/dining space opening to an impressive wraparound entertaining terrace; the sleek open plan kitchen is topped in black granite and includes a DeLonghi gas cooktop, dishwasher, plus ample workspace and storage. Both double bedrooms feature built-in robes and ceiling fans; the master includes a pristine ensuite, while also opening to the terrace. Additional highlights include reverse cycle air conditioning, gas bayonet, alarm system and security lock up garage. The tranquil setting couldn't be more convenient - it's only moments to Warringah Mall or the heart of Dee Why's shopping precinct, while within easy reach of the B1 bus line and a superb choice of the finest beaches in Sydney.
