Remember the coastal holidays of your childhood? Step back in time and rediscover their charm with this character-filled beachfront apartment. With its retro fit-out and cheerful interiors, a new generation can get set to make magic memories in this ground-floor unit, footsteps from Kirra Beach. Nestled in a boutique block of eight directly across from the sand, surf and parklands, this is where the simple joys of everyday life await. A funky kitchen lets you relive your past, while a fresh and bright living area welcomes you with cool sea breezes and coastal views. A cosy meals area also features along with two spacious bedrooms with built-in robes. The combined bathroom and laundry offer practicality and a separate toilet adds convenience. Additionally, stay comfortable year-round with air-conditioning and ceiling fans, and take advantage of the private wrap-around balcony to enjoy drinks at dusk or savour the soothing soundtrack of the ocean. Located just a short stroll from local cafes, shops, and restaurants, you'll have everything you need at your doorstep. Weekends are made for days swimming, surfing or strolling the golden coastline, with a tempting array of eateries and entertainment in nearby Kirra and Coolangatta. Need to travel? Even the airport is within easy reach! Whether you use this as a charming weekender, rental opportunity or low-maintenance home sweet home, this vintage beauty will be a wise investment in your future happiness. Arrange your inspection today.
