$620,000

Situated in close proximity to Bayside Shopping Centre, restaurants, cinemas, and the Homemaker's Centre, this renovated home is conveniently located on the outskirts of Frankston city centre. With only two on the block and no body corporate fees - it presents an affordable opportunity for first-time buyers, a no maintenance option for down sizers or a lucrative investment for savvy investors. Impeccably presented and ready for immediate occupancy, the three bedroom home features a spacious open plan living, dining and kitchen space, boasting stone bench tops, a large 6-burner stove, multiple living spaces with absolutely no work to do. The master bedroom at the rear of the home is perfectly positioned next to the additional living space, perfect for a parents retreat, complete with it's own brand newly renovated bathroom, flowing out to the undercover deck at the rear of the property. The remaining two bedrooms at the front of the property both offer built in robes and share a beautifully renovated bathroom centralised with the adjoining living space. This single-level home also includes a carport and is situated within walking distance of John Paul College, St. Lukes Church, public transport, and the Beach St takeaways and cafe. With Monash University, Frankston Hospital, and the beach just a short zip away, and Melbourne reachable within a 45-minute drive, this low-maintenance property is ideal for small families, downsizers, and couples alike.
