Located just footsteps from the beach this newly redeveloped residence has been designed with meticulous detail and family in mind. Offering four bedrooms, two bathrooms and multiple internal and external living spaces welcome to.....1/9 Boomerang Street. From the street you are met with the fresh white render of the home blending seamlessly into the white front fence offering a coastal aesthetic. Enter through the double lock up garage and mud room or the front door featuring a spacious entryway adorned with VJ panelling to once again bring the ocean and coastal feel directly into your home. Downstairs also offers a large multi purpose room perfect for WFH setups, kids, media or guests. Also featuring powder room and split system air conditioning. Upstairs you are graced with a spacious open plan layout and noticeably large ceiling height throughout. The kitchen being the heart of the home offers prestige waterfall stonework on the bench top, custom cabinetry with integrated dishwasher and modern appliances. Adjacent, your living and dining all proportionally large and flowing effortlessly out through the bifold glass doors and into your private grassed backyard and entertaining space. All upstairs bedrooms offer built in robes, ceiling fans and air conditioning. The master of course with oversized walk in wardrobe and ensuite. The main bathroom offers a beautiful green herringbone tile to capture the energy of the home perfectly, freestanding bath, shower and thoughtfully designed layout with private toilet. Located just 250m from the Beach and less to the main promenade of Kingscliff this residence is coming to market via private treaty. Kasey, Matt and Team look forward to registering your interest today.
