Kick off in the park precinct with grace, space and a future-forward position. Surrounded by quality renovations and prestige new homes just half a dozen doors from RSEA Park, this late-period three bedroom front home has the charm of yesterday, comfortable living for today ...and exactly the right amount of potential for tomorrow. The original home on the block built to the up-scale proportions of the day, this weatherboard beauty features a gracious formal lounge, open-plan dining flowing to a north-facing sunroom...and an elevated all-season deck with all-day sun. Ready to rent or enjoy with a neat kitchen featuring an Asko dishwasher, a glossy polished-porcelain bathroom and separate WC, this enchanting home has modern conveniences including ducted heating, fan-cooling and built-in robes ...and still generous grounds with a large front garden, a lovely little patch of rear lawn and carport parking. Bridging the gap between yesterday's charm and today's liveability and rentability, this inviting home even has a view to the future with scope to style up and shine ... and potential to extend up to possible Dandenongs and parkland views. A stroll to the pool, parkland and Wellness Centre at RSEA park, and a few blocks to Moorabbin's vibrant business, transport and retail hub, this future-forward period home has a lifetime location within an easy commute of the CBD, a walk across the fly-over to the Primary School, and in reach of Bayside's beachside lifestyle.
