

1/96-98 Loftus Street, Bundeena, NSW 2230

Sold Apartment

Tuesday, 5 December 2023

1/96-98 Loftus Street, Bundeena, NSW 2230

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 4

Parkings: 3

Type: Apartment

Johnny Youssif
0410368038

Maurice Maroon

$3,150,000

Contemporary luxury and seaside style define this stunning residence is over 470sqm. Quality finishes, space and outstanding design combine to create an irresistible lifestyle home. Set in a premium oceanfront position directly opposite Hordern's Beach, it is the epitome of excellence boasting substantial proportions and leafy views over the water. Spread over two generous levels and providing a flexible living environment, interiors feature a supremely spacious open living area and large floor-to-ceiling walls of glass that highlight the relaxing outlook and natural light. A large north-facing deck makes a great space to entertain while soaking up the beach outlook, plus there is a showpiece chef's kitchen with stone island bench, premium appliances and a large walk-in pantry. Five bedrooms include an upper-level master retreat that comes complete with a deluxe full bathroom, walk-in wardrobe and private water-view balcony. There is also a separate home office/sunroom, ducted air-conditioning throughout and a private elevator that leads down to a basement lock-up garage. The result is a truly unique and light-filled ultra-modern home embracing low-maintenance living and entertaining in sensational beach surrounds. From here, it's just a few steps to Bundeena's beachside cafés, shopping and amenities, with Cronulla just 10 minutes away by ferry. Features include: A luxury dual-level beachside entertainer with substantial proportions Orientated to take full advantage of natural light and leafy water views Expansive open plan layout featuring flowing living and dining areas North-facing alfresco deck that flows easily off the living space A well-designed chef's kitchen with island bench and walk-in pantry Five bedrooms include an upper-level master with walk-in and ensuite Own private elevator access to a lock-up garage in the basement Ducted air-conditioning, excellent security and intercom entry