Set in a quiet cul-de-sac in East Orange, this brick veneer home is a great place to buy your 1st home or start your investment portfolio. Located on the high side of the street the large front verandah is a nice place to relax and admire the great view back across Orange and over to Mount Canobolas. The property has cypress floorboards throughout, 3 bedrooms, the main with a built in wardrobe, original kitchen and bathroom, wood heating in the lounge room, and a large double shed plus another handy 2 smaller sheds ideal for the handyman or gardiner. This property is well priced to come in and modernise to your taste. Inspections easily arranged.
