

1 Ashley Street, Stuart Park, NT 0820

Sold House

Monday, 14 August 2023

1 Ashley Street, Stuart Park, NT 0820

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 3

Area: 833 m2

Type: House

Kerri-Ann Laurence

$729,000

Framed by lush landscaping, this attractive residence delivers effortless tropical living on a large corner block, just five minutes' drive from the city. Laid out over a single well planned level, the home shows off open-plan living centred around a modern kitchen, with an expansive rumpus off to the side. Creating a wonderful space in which to relax, the home's outdoor living is equally as appealing, featuring a sprawling verandah and plunge pool. Ground level home set on large corner block with two driveways. Spacious interior delivers comfortable, modern living within multiple living spaces. Open-plan living for relaxing and dining, plus large rumpus overlooking pool. Stylish kitchen features gas cooking, modern appliances and butler's pantry. Beautiful outdoor space made up of expansive front verandah, lush gardens and pool. Oversized master with walk-in robe, dual built-in robe and renovated ensuite. Central family bathroom with shower; external laundry. Fully air-conditioned for year-round comfort; louvre windows throughout. Triple carport with high clearance roof, plus heaps of additional parking on driveway. 3 min walk to Stuart Park Primary School. Wonderfully situated within ever-desirable Stuart Park, this three bedroom residence creates a fantastic family home framed by lush, tropical surrounds. Creating a warm, welcoming space, the open-plan living area draws you in with its contemporary, flow-through design, delivering distinct zones for relaxing and dining. At the heart of this space is a tastefully appointed kitchen, where keen cooks are sure to enjoy its stone benchtops, gas cooktop, handy island with breakfast bar dining, ample storage and butler's pantry. Moving through to the expansive rumpus, you find a fabulous flexi area that the kids will love, complete with feature thatched ceilings and polished concrete floors. Opening out from here, there is an easy flow to the verdant backyard, where established plants work to create a private oasis surrounding the sparkling plunge pool. Meanwhile, at the front of the home, a large covered verandah offers additional space for alfresco dining and relaxing. A short stroll from Stuart Park Primary School, the property also offers easy access to local shops and the Botanic Gardens, and it's just a five minute drive into Darwin's vibrant CBD. Add this superb property to your shortlist, and arrange your inspection today.