Located in one of East Lismore's most sought-after streets is this spacious home with so much potential! The property has been a long-term rental and requires some love and a new lease on life, so it would be an ideal affordable option for investors, property flippers, or first-home buyers to get into the market.+ Solid weatherboard construction with loads of character and high ceilings throughout to give a light and airy feeling+ All four bedrooms are generous in size; three have built-in wardrobes, and two with ceiling fans+ Large lounge room with a north-facing bay window, plus air-conditioning and a ceiling fan to keep everybody comfortable+ The timber floors throughout most of the house would benefit from restoration and will come up a treat+ Good size bathroom with a tub, separate shower, and toilet, and an internal laundry with access to the alfresco entertaining area+ Downstairs, you'll find a double garage, a second shower and toilet, a bar, and ample workshop space - great for the tradies!+ Conveniently located within easy walking distance to Lismore Worker's Golf Club, St Vincent's Hospital, Wyrallah Road Shopping Village and local schoolsAlthough perfectly functional "as is", this home is crying out for a makeover. There are really good bones here, and as this enclave of East Lismore is popular, this would make a fantastic project for owner-occupiers or investors alike.
