If yard space is what you're after, then look no further! Ideal for outside pets being fully fenced. Located on a large fully fenced corner block, this high-set home is priced right and ready for you to move in! As you enter the home you will find a front room that leads to the decent sized lounge room. The main and second bedrooms are both a great size with the third being quite generous also. The kitchen and dining is combined in a large room with timber look vinyl. It has a gas cooktop / oven. The bathroom has a shower over bath and a separate toilet for convenience. Underneath the property you will find lock up storage space, laundry & a single garage with manual door. If this property sounds right for you, contact the friendly team at RealWay Property Consultants today!
