With the front gate only 25 metres from manicured parkland, this large 5-bedroom home is ideal for even the largest of families. Located in the desirable southern pocket of Middle Ridge, this home is a short distance from supermarkets, convenience shopping, schools, sporting facilities and more. The home has been designed with generous and separate living spaces for the comfort and privacy of a family of any age. The master suite, with its ensuite and WIR, opens onto the northern outdoor space, with views across the garden. The kitchen has an abundance of bench space and storage and is perfectly positioned to enable easy supervision of the family room, as well as the outdoor spaces. The hedged, north facing yard is elevated from the street and offers privacy when relaxing under the covered outdoor entertainment space. Security grilles to all doors and windows offers peace of mind, with internal comfort being managed by three reverse cycle air conditioning systems, ceiling fans and natural gas heater points.
