

1 Barnard Drive, Bicheno, TAS, 7215

Sold House

Friday, 14 April 2023

1 Barnard Drive, Bicheno, TAS, 7215

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Robert Evans

0363751400

50 ACRE RURAL PROPERTY & FAMILY HOME IN BICHENO

Get excited about this large acreage just outside of the main town of Bicheno. The options on what you can do on this property are endless - whether you are a family wanting a rural lifestyle, a hobby farm enthusiast, or wanting to get serious about an agricultural venture or a tourism experience - this property is suitable for all.

Situated 7 kms north from the Bicheno town centre, your new home is only a short drive to the Douglas Apsley National Park (afternoon swims at the waterhole are a must on hot days), and for golf enthusiasts, you'll be a few minutes drive to the Bicheno Golf Club. Animals lovers - can enjoy NatureWorld just up the road, along with many native critters on the property, and ocean lovers can either take a short drive into town to Waubs and Redbill beaches or a few minutes you'll be at the tranquil Denison Beach.

The property is 50 acres, with a combination of cleared and bush land. It's fully fenced, with a deer fence, and there are multiple paddocks, allowing you to keep and move livestock through the property. It currently has mini goats and self-shearing sheep on the property, however it's a great property for horses or other larger animals. There are 3 dams placed throughout.

The brick home comprises of 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms and study, with an attached garage and a standalone large workshop and shed. There is also a separate studio. The house has a northern aspect, offering all day sun, which you can enjoy from the deck. A BBQ area has also been constructed to enjoy summer (or winter!) BBQs.

It was built in 2007 and built by the owner who is a builder and was designed with the family in mind..