Where the river meets the sea, you will find this contemporary residence ready to move in and enjoy. The family room provides large open plan living. Master chef kitchen with the latest quality appliances including dishwasher and overlooks the dining and family room with 2.7m ceilings and wood fire combustion heater, ideal for those cold winter nights. Master bedroom with built in robes and stylish ensuite. Extensive front deck with views straight down towards the rivers edge where you can enjoy walking and bike riding along the 2km bike track that takes you into the town centre of Goolwa. The north facing back deck is the ideal place to gather with family and friends for weekend BBQ's. There is a 5m x 3m shed at the rear of the property, plus plenty of space on both sides for extra shedding and separate carport or plenty of room to park the caravan or boat. The public boat ramp is just metres away from the home with direct access so that you can use anytime. 15,000 litres of rainwater pump to the house, giving you the option to run on either mains or rainwater. Do not miss this rare opportunity to find a brand-new home like this, that is suitable for permanent or holiday living. You will be thrilled on your first inspection as this property is immaculate. Call me today to arrange your own private inspection.
