This property is a true entertainer's haven; meticulously maintained and thoughtfully designed to offer an outstanding lifestyle, all without breaking the bank. Sea views are visible from every bedroom, making it an even more enchanting place to call home. Internally, you'll find three well-appointed bedrooms, with the master suite boasting an extensive wall of built-in wardrobes. The welcoming lounge is kept cosy thanks to a modern reverse cycle air conditioner, and the bathroom thoughtfully features a separate toilet. A harmonious blend of functionality and style shines through this home's design. The layout facilitates easy access from the garden and deck via a practical boot room and laundry. Citrus and fruit trees dot the meticulously landscaped garden, offering a delightful and fragrant touch to the surroundings. The kitchen and dining area, recently renovated, takes center stage with its impressive aesthetics. The glossy black tiles, complemented by sleek black tapware, sink, and range hood, exude an air of sophistication. It serves as the perfect space for meal preparation, especially when you're gearing up to head outside to the covered outdoor BBQ area. This fully tiled space features a built-in barbecue and elegant screens. The views here on a clear day are also stunning with distant views of the beach. The 'new new' raised back deck is perfect for the addition of a pool or trampoline, enhancing the property's entertainment value. The veggie garden, ideal for the chef of the house, has been thoughtfully designed to look over the stunning views and is super low maintenance, allowing for convenient and sustainable fresh produce. For practicality, an extra-tall garage is included, ideal for storing a caravan or boat, and the property is conveniently located just 20 minutes from Bridport. The corner block location offers dual access, adding to the overall convenience. Located in Scottsdale, it's just 62 kilometers from Launceston, 34 kilometers from Derby, and a short 25 kilometers from Bridport's picturesque beaches and world-class golf courses. With all these features, this property truly offers a lifestyle of comfort and enjoyment.
