New to the market is this immaculately presented 4 bedroom brick home located on a large 903sqm corner block close to schools, the town centre & the recreational grounds. The property has a long list of features including; an inground pool with heating, a 6x6m colorbond shed with power, double carport & a 6kw solar power system. Inside the home is open & fresh with built-ins, WIR & ensuite off the main. The kitchen is the central hub of the home with ample bench space, a huge built-in pantry that overlooks the dining space & a considerable size living area. The property is complete with a large timber entainment deck overlooks the inground pool making this a great space to entertain or relax. A unique property that is rarely seen in the Laidley market. Please phone Darryl Muckert on 0407692600 to book your private inspection.
