The verandah at the front of the home offers an impressive view beyond to the rural landscape and will be a much-loved relaxation zone. You will be sitting pretty on the high side of the road in this 2 x 1 home and a stroll down to the Blackwood River will be a favourite pastime. The home is situated on 1,136sqm and is simply charming! Stepping into the home off the large front verandah you are met with polished floor boards that are the foundation for the open plan layout, encompassing a living room with wood fire, a dining area with air-conditioning alongside the revitalized kitchen with central island bench. A stool or two and you have a great gathering place, an enjoyable breakfast spot. A light palette sets the tone for the whole home, slices of natural light and a relaxing ambience. This area is the hub of the home with both bedrooms branching from this central space. The main bedroom has a second room connected which would be perfect for a walk-in robe, study nook, nursery, or cozy retreat. The other bedroom presents a good size, and both share the light and bright bathroom. This is situated off the back landing with separate toilet and room to add additional storage. Out to the undercover patio takes you to the good size fully fenced backyard, garden beds, pond, and chook house up the back. Storage underneath the home is a good option as an addition to the shed/carport at the rear of the property. The home has a great feel, is as neat as a pin and will appeal to the many that are looking for a Bridgetown style cottage in a fantastic location, this one will be popular!
