We are thrilled to announce that 1 Dindima Place has been successfully sold! We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the new owners and express our gratitude to all who showed interest in this remarkable property. With 31 enthusiastic groups attending the FIRST open home and the strong number of attendees throughout the entire campaign, the level of interest was exceptional, especially among young couples and downsizers. If you have recently considered selling, please do not hesitate to contact me on the details below, we have a strong database of buyers who unfortunately missed out and are ready to buy, with flexible settlement dates. Alternatively, if you would just like to know more about this sale or receive an update on the market price of your home, don't hesitate to contact me today. My dedicated team is here to assist you every step of the way.
