Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac, this typical 1970's home has been remodelled to offer stylish, modern living. Occupying a generous corner allotment and blessed with a unique sense of space, its elevated setting ensures a wonderful leafy aspect with backdrops of the city skyline. An Aussie Plain Jane cleverly refashioned to suit a busy inner-city lifestyle, the house evokes a sense of simplicity, spaciousness, and relaxed living. Set on a 670m² block surrounded by level lush lawns and well-established hedges, the lower-level pavilion is the perfect place for back yard cricket and year round barbecue's – the epitome of Queensland living. 10 minute walk to Everton Park's popular 'Park Lane' precinct offering an array of restaurants, cafes and shops, the property is within proximity to local schools, public transport and 10km to Brisbane CBD. - Late-century high-set brick & chamfer board house - Elevated 670m² corner allotment – wide frontage - Fully renovated to offer all modern conveniences - Modern kitchen with induction cooking & stainless steel appliances - Open plan lounge & dining room opens to balcony - Airconditioned lounge room & ceiling fans throughout - Three good sized bedrooms with built ins - Double lock up car accommodation & yard access from street Contact Peter D'Arcy on 0412 738 009 for more information.
