Auction! Vendor says Sell

Neat as a pin, with nothing to do but move in and enjoy the lifestyle on offer. It is clear that the owners have loved this home and now it's time to move on. Don't miss the opportunity to secure 1 Elizabeth Street, Parkes. On offer is a 3 bedroom home located on a corner block in popular Elizabeth Street with frontage to Bogan Street and convenient rear lane access. Enter through a leafy green garden arch and follow the stone path to the front door. Upon entry you will approach the lounge room, complete with wood fire and the first art deco period features which you'll find throughout the home. The spacious main bedroom features a built in wardrobe, there is a sleep out off the second bedroom and the third bedroom is certainly not short on space either. The bathroom includes a shower, bath and vanity and toilet is separate. One of the most notable features of the home is the galley kitchen, here you'll enjoy ample storage, modern appliances including a stainless steel dishwasher, 6 burner gas stove and 900mm oven. The kitchen window overlooks the back yard and plunge pool and includes a serving window that opens out on to your entertainer's deck. Outside you'll find a built in outdoor kitchen and bbq area, large laundry with additional toilet as well as a separate outdoor shower, great for when you are transitioning from the pool to the house. The shed is likely to spark envy among your mates measuring in at a whopping 71sqm, with garage door access from the front and back. Book your inspection today to avoid missing out.
