Picton is one of Australia's oldest and most historic townships, being part of the original Governor MacArthur's, Macarthur farm. 1 Elizabeth is a classic example showcasing a slice of history in every room. From the stunning street appeal through to the original pressed metal high ceilings, classic hardwood flooring and plastering. The property has been thoughtfully maintained and preserved. The gardens, driveway and yards have all been created to enhance the home, creating the unique look and feel only a home built around 1860 can offer. Features include. • Reverse cycle air conditioning and a slow combustion fireplace • Bi fold doors to rear of the house • Kitchen includes, dishwasher, 900mm gas stove top and electric oven • Decorative fireplace in bedroom • Large, tiled bathroom with built in laundry • Covered wooden decking overlooking the rear yard. • Ample external storage • Classic old style external toilet (property has internal toilet) • Large bedrooms with picture railing • Flat 100% usable 1,189m² land with built in automatic irrigation and side access • Post and rail fencing in keeping with the style of the home The property needs to be seen to fully appreciate the many unique features. Walking distance to the main shopping precinct of Picton including restaurants, cafes, and the famous George The IV Tavern.
