Boasting the trifecta of character, position and size, this beautifully presented semi is an ideal first home.

With the benefit of side street access and a quiet corner position, the property offers a double garage and beautifully manicured yard.

Its sizable living room and two bedrooms are adorned with character features, while the eat-in kitchen and bathroom have been updated and well-maintained. Inspect to discover the value and appeal of this quiet, leafy pocket on the cusp of the inner-west.

- Two bedrooms with built-ins, plus study
- Period details including polished timber floors, high ornate ceilings and picture rails
- Quality timber kitchen with dishwasher and gas cooktop
- Manicured lawn with northerly aspect and established hedges
- Corner position and side street access to double garage
- Elegant living room, plus dining space adjoining kitchen
- Quiet leafy street, walking distance to trains and shops; short drive to the beach and best of the inner west
