If your growing family is bursting at the seams and desperately needs space to grow into, this big and spacious four-bedroom, two-bathroom residence provides the perfect remedy for your growing pains. Offering two self-contained levels that can be independent of each other, it's tailor-made for multi-generational living or an opportunity to line your pockets with income. A lower-level floorplan boasting its own entry via the leafy backyard, radiant living with kitchenette, generous-sized bedroom with ensuite and a relaxed deck grants extended family members or teenagers with the privacy they need; such is its versatility that it could also be leased out to generate a passive income stream. The main level therefore allows your growing family to spread out comfortably and enjoy its two beautiful living areas, three spacious bedrooms, large study, bright bathroom, pristine presentation and magnificent entertainer's deck perched among the treetops. Enhanced with polished timber floorboards, deluxe family-sized kitchen, ducted climate control, open fireplace, loads of storage space and full-length windows that frame soothing verdant outlooks, it has all the space and comfort required for your growing family to thrive moments from Yarran Dheran Nature Reserve, Mitcham train station, excellent schools and Mitcham shops and cafes.
