This captivating property is a true testament to timeless charm and enduring care while offering both style and functionality. At the front of the home the comfortable carpeted lounge room has a split system reverse cycle air conditioner and an economical full house evaporative air conditioner keeps the summer heat at bay. Boasting a very generous main bedroom with built-in robes, bedroom two also has built-ins and the third is a double. Enjoy the convenience of two bathrooms both with separate showers and two toilets. The kitchen, always the heart of the home, provides ample cupboard and bench space, gas cooking and space for casual or formal dining while enjoying the delightful garden views. Outside the garden is a private haven with spaces to relax and unwind plus a carport and garden shed and eight money saving solar panels are a few handy extras. Prime location close to numerous Stawell amenities including the hospital, the main shopping centre and our famous parks and lakes are all within easy walking distance. This property is discreet and truly delightful and we highly recommend your personal inspection. Property Code: 2929
