Overlooking Greens Beach and all that it has to offer, this quirky seaside retreat is simply wonderful. If you're looking for the family shack, a beachside retreat, or somewhere to call home, then this property should certainly be on your list. Sitting on the main deck you will enjoy views to the north, overlooking the golf course, across the main beach, and on to the Low Head Lighthouse in the distance at the eastern mouth of the Tamar River. This large deck is certain to be area of choice on many a summers day, whether you're enjoying your morning cuppa, relaxing with a good book and glass of wine, or of course, it's the perfect place for entertaining late into the night. The main residence comprises 2 bedrooms, with the large master suite upstairs, including its own deck. While downstairs the open plan design, featuring timber throughout, has a marvellous beachy feel. To the rear of the property you have a stand-alone studio/bunkhouse, which is ideal for children, it contains bunk beds and room for a double and more. Alternatively, this space would make an ideal artist's studio, yoga room, or is great for whatever other pursuit you may enjoy. With all main services 10 minutes away in Beaconsfield, and an easy commute to Launceston the position of this beachside jewel is simply perfect. Don't miss this opportunity! By private inspection.
