Offering exquisite serenity, this magnificent architectural designed home is nestled high on the ridge with views over the Byron hinterland through to the ocean and Cape Byron Lighthouse. There is a spaciousness to this home that is unparalleled - there are so many different areas that are truly usable around this private oasis which is resort style living at its best! Only 10 minutes' drive to Mullumbimby's town centre, the beaches of Brunswick Heads and Byron Bay, plus only a short drive to Ballina and Gold Coast airports - the location couldn't be better. Not to mention down the road from the world famous Steiner School. Designed to embrace the natural surrounds and those epic views, the home features an expansive use of glass and a seamless indoor/outdoor flow. Polished timber floors, airconditioning installed in all bedrooms/ lounge area and high ceilings add to the appeal. The home also includes an 8 kilowatt solar system. At the heart of the abode is an open plan kitchen, dining and lounge with wood fire. This space connects to the covered outdoor area. You will spend many hours here with family and friends entertaining around the inground swimming pool admiring the outlook. The kitchen inside will please the most discerning home chef with breakfast bar, gas cooktop, dishwasher and wall oven. A separate guest room offers ample space and privacy with its own bathroom and covered patio overlooking the pool. 2 other bedrooms + office and main bathroom occupy the opposite side of the house. The second studio room with airconditioning & ensuite is separate from the main home. This could be an ideal guest or teenage retreat. A peaceful location with stunning views and a beautifully crafted home with great outdoor areas and gardens - It doesn't get any better than this. The property also features a private boardwalk leading into the native gardens. A double carport completes the package.
