

1 Hiah Close, Greensborough, Vic 3088

House For Sale

Wednesday, 3 April 2024

1 Hiah Close, Greensborough, Vic 3088

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

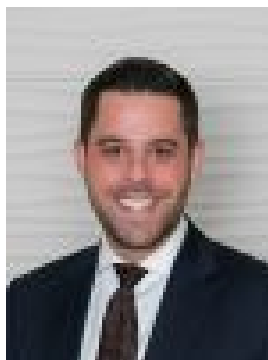

Parkings: 2

Area: 645 m2

Type: House

James Morrison
0394312444

Lucas Peressini
0447997889

ESR: $1,150,000 - $1,250,000

Atop a hill in a highly coveted location, with sweeping views that command attention, stands a majestic home—a splendor of yesteryears. It's immediately obvious that this residence is more than just a shelter; it is a fortress meticulously crafted to withstand the tests of time. Upon opening the grand frosted glass front doors, one is instantly transfixed on the sweeping staircase and enormous chandelier, its intricate design highlighted by a ceiling rose that is (almost unbelievably) finished in resplendent gold leaf! The top floor is home to the formal lounge and dining areas, featuring more high ceilings, chandeliers and incredible city views. The kitchen is vast, boasting timber cabinets with lead-light displays and state-of-the-art appliances, including a 900mm gas Westinghouse cooker and dishwasher. Adjacent to the kitchen, the meals/family room has a cozy ambiance, featuring a wood fire and verandah leading to the back garden. The master suite boasts a balcony with seemingly endless views, hardwood floors, a walk-in robe, and an ensuite that, as you would expect, is complete with a bidet. A dazzling new bathroom in white boasts a full-size bath and serves the three generous family bedrooms cleverly positioned within the floor plan. Down on the ground floor, a big casual lounge welcomes with exposed brick walls and intricate architraves, leading to a huge billiard room that boasts an incredible full-size bar, plumbed for convenience. It's the ultimate leisure space. The billiard room is seamlessly connected to the backyard—a verdant oasis of serenity featuring a built-in brick BBQ and plenty of established fruit trees. Amidst the splendor of the past, modern amenities are integrated throughout the home—including solar panels, a satellite dish, gas ducted heating, and evaporative cooling. Storage abounds throughout the home, catering to the practical needs of a growing family. Let's not forget a garage that easily accommodates four vehicles or two with substantial room for a workbench. The home is located within easy reach of beautiful parklands and walking trails, a choice of highly regarded schools, excellent shopping and easy transport. In every corner, this home whispers tales of bygone elegant soirées and cherished family gatherings. The manner in which this home has been maintained over the years is incomparable, with its sprawling spaces and incredible construction methods.