With innovative Mexican flair combined with Aussie resort style appeal, this top-class property is right at home in Desert Springs, Central Australia! A superb, labour-intensive restoration has justly transformed this property into a class of its own. Distinctive front terra cotta garden pavers, strategic colourful landscaping, formed pathways and hacienda style garden structures give a lasting first impression. A striking dome-shaped, glass and steel entry foyer takes the lead into the semicircular, architecturally designed standout home. Internal full height glass windows and sliding doors ensure that both formal and informal living areas as well as all five bedrooms can view and easy access the magnificent, central positioned, inground freeform swimming pool. Working from home could take on a whole new meaning! There are endless living options as four of the five bedrooms have ensuite bathrooms with crisp white and blue, Mediterranean styled tiling and walk-in robes. All bedrooms on the northern side of the home have external sliding glass doors that lead to their own private courtyard gardens. The main bedroom suite is adjacent to the main living area and separate from the remaining bedrooms. The well-designed and timeless gas kitchen has an abundance of features including a walk-in pantry, dishwasher, display shelving, entertainer breakfast bar and garden views. There is a triple lock-up garage with auto roller doors, rear access and plenty of off-street parking. High privacy boundary walls are themed with the outside render of the home and add a creative touch. With so many living options this is the perfect opportunity to secure one of Desert Springs most iconic family residences. 1 Higgins Court is prepped and ready for you to move in and start living.
