Intertwining grand dimensions with glamorous city skyline views, this Toscana lavish home embraces a multitude of different living spaces and allows the family to live a life of luxury in the Mount Waverley Secondary College Zone. Relishing pristine presentation, the home's opulent spaces commence with a grand foyer that flows effortlessly through to a formal lounge and dining room that's been enriched with new carpet. Indulging in space, the open plan kitchen, meals and family room showcases granite benches, 5-burner gas stove, Technika oven, Bosch dishwasher, walk-in pantry plus a breakfast bench with shimmering Italian tiles underfoot. Welcoming you outside, the private, northerly oriented backyard is accompanied by an entertaining space and wraps around to a shade sail covered area that's ideal for summer enjoyment. Upstairs, a large leisure room captures views of the CBD and is accompanied by a balcony plus four robed bedrooms, with the master bedroom featuring a parent's sitting zone, spa ensuite and walk-in-robe. Adding to the appeal, the home embraces a home office, family bathroom, third ground floor bathroom, laundry, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, alarm, satellite TV, irrigation system, storage room plus a double garage with rear roller door. Resting on 724 sqm approx. only meters from Mount Waverley Secondary College, walking distance to train station, MW Primary School, MW North Primary School, near elite private schools, Monash and Deakin universities, Chadstone Shopping Centre, The Glen, Burwood one shopping centre, Brickworks shops, parkland and Riversdale Golf Course.
