Calling all developers, home builders. With vacant residential land of this size 1266m² being near impossible to find today so close to Launceston CBD, here is a golden opportunity knocking for the savvy buyer. With captivating 180 degree views from this large high set corner block, looking straight out to the rolling hills of the North East and attracting all day sun, 1 Kintail Crescent Newstead is the ideal block to either build your large, opulent family home or develop a unique town house complex (stca). Slightly elevated to the rear this block sits high and proud to give maximum vision to any multiple builds. With Newstead being one on Launceston's popular blue chip suburbs with all its great conveniences on offer and being just a 7 min drive into the CBD this vacant block is sure to be of interest to a large demographic of purchasers.
