Occupying a sunny position and displaying immense street appeal set behind an electric gate, this charming Federation property is warm and inviting, with a well-designed floorplan, classic original features and enormous potential as a much loved family home. Conveniently set across one floor with level access, multiple living areas ensure ample space for the whole family. Open plan living forms the heart of the home, comprising the well-equipped kitchen and spacious casual meals and family room. French doors open off this space onto the home's large verandah to offer seamless indoor/outdoor living. The formal dining and lounge room are adjacent, providing further flexibility in the floorplan. Across the other side of the wide entry hall is the private master suite with ensuite bathroom and parents' retreat and sunroom. Two further double bedrooms are serviced by the generously proportioned central family bathroom. A covered entertaining area, garage and laundry are at the rear. Outside the home is surrounded by picturesque established gardens, sprawling across the 1027m² allotment. Desirably located within easy reach of popular schools, Symmons park and walking trails along the water's edge. Also close to the shops, cafes and amenities of Lindisfarne Village, the property is also just a short commute to Hobart's CBD. This is an exceptional opportunity to acquire a beautiful old historic home and a relaxed lifestyle in a quiet urban pocket of Hobart's Eastern Shore.
