Combining the style of modern updated interiors with the serenity of its leafy court setting, this comfortable family sanctuary sits within a stroll of Parkmore Shopping Centre and Keysborough Primary School. Captivating from first sight, the home's impeccable double-storey facade is framed by a lovingly manicured frontage, expansive driveway, and elegant timber porch. Revealing crisp white tones, sophisticated feature walls, and chic hardwood flooring, the light-filled layout showcases a soothing open living room with a beautiful winding staircase, flowing to a casual family/meal zone and a wonderful enclosed alfresco for year-round entertaining. Placed centrally to encourage socialising, the solid timber kitchen is spacious and charming, as the three robed bedrooms sit alongside a beautifully renovated floor to ceiling tiles bathroom equipped with a rainfall showers head and heated towels rack. Adding to the home's versatility, the upper level boasts a flexible games room/gym that could also double as a great playroom or teenage retreat, while the rear self-contained unit promises easy dual living with a kitchenette and private ensuite. Quality finishing touches are abundant throughout, consisting of split-system air conditioning, and soft plush carpet, plus 4k CCTV, NBN connectivity, and a secure single garage. Life in Keysborough is all about convenience, with this beloved home surrounded by leafy reserves and placed within moments of Keysborough Secondary College and prestigious private schools such as Haileybury. It's also close to Noble Park Station and the Eastlink for easy city commuting. Move-in ready with scope to personalise, this expansive home offers something for everyone.
