Within easy reach of the city's heart, this freestanding 4 bedroom home in one of Melbourne's most liveable suburbs could be key to a dynamic cosmopolitan lifestyle. Hosting a study area and open dining and family zones, it features a wide hallway, high ceilings with decorative details, leadlight and polished floorboards, and in addition to a well presented front garden there's quite a bit of space at the rear with scope for various uses and excellent access with vehicle width gates to side and rear laneways. Three double bedrooms include two with built-in robes and the bathroom has both a shower and separate bath. Complete with a side driveway and with only one immediate neighbour, it's got lots of scope for stylish enhancement and is just seconds to trams, schools and cafe's, close to parks, a short drive to shopping precincts, convenient to CityLink access and only around 4 kilometres to the CBD.
