This beautiful lifestyle property is set on just over 2 acres in a quiet court location on the edge of the Maryborough Township. A fantastic parcel of land, with a mixture of green grass and trees providing privacy to the residence. The home comprises of three bedrooms, bathroom, kitchen, dining and living area. Featuring lovely wood heater and split system for heating and cooling. The North facing patio at the front of the home is the perfect spot for your morning coffee- whilst on the other side of the home is a large decked area perfect for entertaining of an evening. Further infrastructure includes a separate studio/multi purpose room which could be a perfect home office, single carport and double garage/workshop with concrete floor & power. The property is fully fenced and split up into multiple paddocks- the house lot and then the others feature a dam and plenty of open space for grazing. So much on offer at this property- book you inspection today!
