This family home of many generations has come on the market and ready for a new family to own. Built in mid 1960's it has 3 bedrooms upstairs and single bathroom all well appointed. Air conditioned throughout, with a centrally located dining room, lounge room at the front and an enclosed side living area next to the dining area. The kitchen has gas hot plate and electric wall oven, walk-in pantry and compact dishwasher with single sink. Downstairs has a large laundry area, single lock-up garage and a family / utility room and plenty of storage area. There is a two bay lock-up colorbond shed with roller doors and solar power on the roof. Outdoor entertaining area and well established gardens with some unique features like the trumpet flower archway. This corner block provides two street access. Inspection by appointment or open house.
