Single level, on a completely private corner block, this much-loved and superbly renovated home offers WOW factor, a contemporary coastal style and the ultimate outdoor lifestyle that you will fall in love with. Set back from the road, in a private cul-de-sac, as soon as you set eyes on the freshly facelifted façade and established tropical gardens, you will realise this home is something extra special. The stunning interior has been thoughtfully renovated with impeccable style and superb quality. The expansive open plan living area with plantation shutters features porcelain tiles and an incredible coast feel with excellent indoor-outdoor flow, and a chic beach style. A quality kitchen with broad stone benchtops, sleek cabinetry, 900mm oven with gas cooktop and dishwasher is set in a social space overlooking living and dining. Designed for those that love to entertain, there is a real emphasis on the outdoor lifestyle here. Leading from the lounge, there is a large covered deck that provides a wonderful place to relax overlooking and leading to the incredibly tempting resort style beach entry pool surrounded by neatly retained gardens and landscaping. Back inside, there are four bedrooms that all feature built-in-robies, ceiling fans and are again stylishly decorated. The master bedroom is air-conditioned and is a great size with walk-in robe, ensuite bathroom and a glass sliding door to your very own deck, a total parents retreat! A fresh and improved main bathroom services the additional three bedrooms & offers a coastal feel, with shower, free-standing bath, and a separate WC. In addition to the oversized double garage, the driveway has been extended to allow easy parking for a caravan, boat & or additional vehicles. The laundry has been updated and has a 3rd with access direct from the pool area. Positioned in a dream location within walking distance to Tacking Point Tavern and close to Lighthouse beach and the local cafes and shops, this truly special home is an absolute must-see for those looking for something special!
