Raise the kids in safe and peaceful surrounds with this perfectly presented family residence, which enjoys the luxury of space along with the immense lifestyle benefits its desired court location provides. Warm timber flooring, light décor and bright open spaces accentuate the home's modern character, while the intelligent zoning of the generous-sized bedrooms (master with ensuite) and contemporary family bathroom provides a superior level of privacy away from the two living areas. Escape the daily grind with a glass of red in front of the formal living's open fireplace, or head outside and instantly feel at ease with a soothing soak in the fully-tiled outdoor spa. Play host to unforgettable nights this summer out on the undercover alfresco deck as the kids play with freedom in the landscaped backyard; an excellent family-sized timber kitchen, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, double carport and multiple sheds add further appeal. Attracting very little traffic flow, the environment is perfect for raising a young family. And with outstanding access to the Diamond Creek Trail, Wattle Glen Primary School, Wattle Glen train station, Peppers Paddock General Store and Diamond Creek's bustling shopping and dining strip, the location easily caters for families of all sizes.
