A drive by won't do this one justice. You simply must step through the door to appreciate the surprising space of this stunning renovation, which sets you up in a court on 916sqms (approx.) in the VSCZ and Rangeview zone (STSA).The mid-century charm of the bold linear design remains - but an extension to add space and stylish new finishes presents an interior that feels like a new home - with satin finish Tasmanian Oak floors, a showcase new kitchen with prestige Falcon oven, and bi-fold doors opening to the deck for seamless indoor-outdoor integration.For families wanting a home to grow with them, the floor plan offers 3 impressive living areas, 4 zoned bedrooms plus a study, and beautiful established gardens with a paved sporting court, and fire pit with built in seating - perfect for every-day relaxation or big scale entertaining.A grand kitchen offers the 'wow' factor of a statement black Falcon 90cm cooker, waterfall benches and Franke sink, with magnificent storage space for all your kitchen knick knacks.Moving from the front lounge, family room and central rumpus is an effortless affair, creating wonderful family connection at the heart of the home.Bedrooms are positioned privately at the back to overlook the gardens, including a king-sized master bedroom with a lavish ensuite and fitted dressing room. Expect all the comfort and convenience of zoned gas ducted heating and refrigerated air, network cabling throughout, a huge carport and extra parking on the driveway, as well as exceptional access to local schools, shops, Eastlink and the parkland fringe of Abbey Walk, Campbells Croft and the Dandenong Creek Trail to Jells Park.
