Welcome to 1 Redcherry Court, where every cherry is ripe for the picking and every feature is as sweet as can be! Picture yourself strolling through the wide entrance hall, feeling like royalty with its high ceilings that give even the tallest of guests room to stretch and reach for the stars. With four bedrooms, each sporting its own walk-in robe, you'll never have to worry about where to hide your extensive shoe collection. And fear not, for the master bedroom comes complete with a full ensuite, ensuring that your morning routine is both efficient and fabulous. The other three bedrooms have easy access to the main bathroom facilities. But wait, there's more! Two separate living areas mean you can entertain guests in one and escape to your own private sanctuary in the other. It's like having your cake and eating it too – or should we say, having your cherry and popping it too? Let's talk about the heart of the home – the kitchen. With stainless steel appliances including a gas cooktop, oven, and dishwasher, whipping up a feast for your friends and family has never been more enjoyable. Need to park your prized possessions? No problem! Double gated side access means you can securely store your caravan, jet ski, or collection of garden gnomes with ease. And let's not forget about the undercover outdoor entertaining area, where you can grill up a storm or simply bask in the sunshine while sipping on a refreshing beverage. Some other features of the property are: Ducted heating Split system air conditioning 8 inbuilt security cameras Smart dimmable led downlights Carpets in all bedrooms Laminated flooring throughout the house Tinted windows Day and night blinds Wall to wall spotted gum bedhead in the master bedroom So, if you're ready to turn your property dreams into a sweet reality, come on down to 1 Redcherry Court and make yourself at home!
