A unique opportunity to purchase your own piece of history in Western Victoria. Caramut is conveniently situated on the Hamilton Highway between Mortlake (33km) and Hamilton (55km). This Federation style timber building is well preserved and maintained. The church was built after the land was donated by the Dickson Family. St Josephs consists of a foyer and auditorium with timber floor and high ceiling. The building has "Conite" cladding exterior over weatherboard and is surrounded by an established open garden in a quiet rural setting. Land size is 2,069m². The sale does not include furniture. St Josephs Caramut is part of Our Lady of Mercy Parish, Terang and the Catholic Diocese of Ballarat.
