Welcome to 1 Riverside Way. This 1963-built gem has undergone a stunning renovation, resulting in a beautifully modern interior flooded with natural light. Perched on an elevated position, it offers breathtaking views of the surrounding area. The heart of the home is a spacious open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area that's bathed in sunlight through large windows. The kitchen boasts ample counter space, allowing you to prepare meals while enjoying the scenic views. It also offers easy access to the backyard, perfect for outdoor entertaining. The master bedroom is generously sized and features built-in robes for all your storage needs. The second bedroom also comes with built-in robes, while the third bedroom, though slightly smaller, offers cozy comfort. The bathroom is well-appointed with a soothing bathtub, and there's a separate toilet for added convenience. Below the house, you'll find a single-car garage and a dedicated laundry space. With double access to the rear of the house, it's practical and functional. Situated on the expansive 789m² land is a substantial 54m² shed, perfect for car enthusiasts or those needing extra storage. This versatile space can accommodate two cars, features a stylish man cave/bar area, and includes a mezzanine level for even more storage options. The sizable backyard offers endless possibilities for outdoor activities, gardening, or simply soaking in the serenity of the surroundings. This Riverside home is situated close to many conveniences and a short drive into the Launceston CBD.
