Boasting an elevated position sits this flawlessly appointed family residence in this highly coveted and tightly held pocket of Mt Waverley. This wonderfully renovated four-bedroom home is certain to impress amidst beautifully sculpted parklands and walking trails that offer a soothing connection to nature. Surrounded by colourful established gardens, the home greets visitors with a welcoming entry foyer, leading to a north facing formal living & dining room. An expansive separate open plan living and dining area flows seamlessly out to an alfresco area and a private secure rear yard. A stunning contemporary kitchen comprises elegant stone benchtops, an island with breakfast bar, and ample additional storage. Ideally designed for harmonious multi-generational living, the master bedroom includes a luxe ensuite and a WIR. Three further bedrooms BIR's are complemented by a large central bathroom and family sized laundry with direct access out. Featuring wide engineered oak flooring, ducted heating and ducted cooling, roller blinds with privacy sheers, lush carpets through out, excellent inbuilt storage, the home also includes a remote double lock-up garage with extra storage space. Best off all, this high calibre home provides a high amenity position within moments of it all – including Mount Waverley SC zone, Mt Waverley Heights PS, public transport, parks and sportsgrounds plus an easy commute to Oakleigh & Chadstone shops. We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
