This stunning McDonald Jones home envelops you in its cozy, welcoming ambiance, the moment you walk in. The family/living and dining area's harmony, brought to life by the large windows and doors leading to the outside, makes it a warm, multipurpose focus for both regular family life and large-scale entertainment. Everyone enjoys spending time in this home's kitchen, including the chef. Situated adjacent to the dining area, the roomy gourmet kitchen provides ample workspace, a capacious pantry to store necessities, and a broad window providing a view of the surroundings of your newly acquired residence. The enormous, spa-like master suite is situated to one side of the entryway, while the other bedrooms and family bathroom are situated on the opposite side of the cleverly designed home. With three bedrooms and an activity area, there's plenty of room for the kids and visitors to share while the parents unwind in their own sanctuary, which also features a conveniently positioned study and private outdoor access. Check out the virtual tour and contact Lauren or Olivia today to arrange your private inspection.
