If you are looking to get away on weekends then this 17 acre bush block may just be the ticket. This property would make the perfect place to set up camp, light a fire and put the billy on. There is quite a number of small clearings for you to choose from and with good roads you will have access all year round. Located between Lexton and Beaufort you will have access to everything you need within 15mins. Under 2 hours to Melbourne and 35 minutes to Ballarat. Please call for more information
