This picture perfect home is located only a short drive to the centre of Bacchus Marsh, Freeway access and multiple schooling options, positioning it in a highly sought after and desirable location. This home has been quality built, thoughtfully designed and tastefully presented offering low maintenance and luxe living, for the lucky purchasers to simply walk in and enjoy. This highly desirable four bedroom, two bathroom home is appealing from every angle. The appeal is clear and the quality is attractive to any buyer, from the moment you walk in you're greeted with natural light filled spaces. The well set out open dining and meals area provides a free flowing and functional floor plan. The impressive kitchen is placed at the heart of the home and has been jam packed with quality appliances, style and space. Stainless steel dishwasher, 900mm free standing oven and stove ensure all the requirements are met for the Master Chef within. All of this accompanied by great bench space, ample cupboards, draw space and eye catching black tapware to the centre island bench. The main bedroom, hosts a sizeable walk-in robe, roller blind window coverings as well as an elegant ensuite, featuring open shower, toilet and vanity. Whilst the three remaining bedrooms all inclusive of built-in robes and wall to wall carpet are serviced by the central and stunning bathroom, with free standing bath, vanity and shower as well as a separate toilet for convenience. Efficient ducted heating and sought after refrigerated cooling adds to the indoor appeal, along with the well appointed laundry and storage options with separate linen cupboard included. Stepping outside you're greeted with a low maintenance and meticulously maintained rear yard. Making the space convenient and free to enjoy all year round. Additional outdoor features include manicured landscaping to the front and back, undercover alfresco area to enjoy year round and a double lock up garage. Properties such as this with location, quality and style are not frequent to the market and would be in your best interest to view today. We look forward to hearing from you and can't wait to show you through this picture perfect listing.
