Introducing a prime opportunity that invites your creative vision. Nestled in a quiet court location with undeniable street appeal, this spacious family home offers a canvas for transformation. Set on a generously sized block of approximately 600m² approx, this residence boasts 3 bedrooms, including a main bedroom with a walk-in robe and a semi-ensuite bathroom. The 2 additional bedrooms feature built-in robes, ensuring ample storage space. Step inside to discover an L-shaped lounge and dining room with timeless hardwood flooring, adding character to the home. The central kitchen with adjoining meals/family area opens to a covered, paved alfresco space. The large rumpus room presents flexible options for a growing family or potential extra living space. While the home may appear tired and in need of renovation, it holds tremendous potential for first-time buyers looking to make their mark. Its original features provide a unique blank canvas, allowing you to bring your ideas and inspiration to life. Beyond the immediate living spaces, the expansive block opens doors to endless possibilities. Consider building your dream home in the future on this sizeable canvas, making it a long-term investment that adds value to your portfolio. Convenience is at your doorstep, with Kingsclere Shopping Centre and Parkmore Shopping Centre just minutes away. Your family's education needs are easily met with a selection of schools in close proximity, including Keysborough Primary, Wallarano Primary, and Haileybury College. For commuters, Noble Park Train Station is a mere 5-minute drive away, offering effortless connectivity to Melbourne's bustling city centre; and if driving is your thing, access to Dandenong By-Pass and connecting with Eastlink & Monash freeways is seamless. Presenting an opportunity for entry-level buyers seeking a spacious blank canvas in a popular location. Bring your creativity, your dreams, and your inspiration to this Noble Park gem.
