Set in a quiet pocket position, a short walk to Healesville township this 1900's cottage is the perfect fit for an Air BnB, professional couple or renovator. The woven wire fence & moody weatherboard facade sets the tone for the home. Greeted by an abundance of natural light streaming through the large corner windows allowing you to enjoy mountain views while sitting in the comfort of your own home. Original timber flooring flows throughout, retro kitchen with wood fire oven and cooktop, main bathroom consisting of shower over bath, laundry trough and washing machine space, separate toilet, large lounge room with split system and main bedroom with high ceilings and decorative ceilings. A magical garden wraps around the home with a cosy courtyard, established trees and a large grass area. The back half of the block has a picturesque gully style setting ready for the buyer to get creative with the endless possibilities (STCA). Within a few minutes walk to Healesville township, cafes, restaurants, grocers, boutiques, Queens Park, sporting facilities, schools & public transport.
