Welcome to your dream home! This spacious five bedroom, single-storey gem is ready for you to move in and start creating unforgettable memories. Situated in a prime location near the Stud Park Shopping Precinct, this home offers convenience and luxury all in one. Enjoy the ease and comfort of single-level living with all your essential spaces on one floor. The five bedrooms are perfect for large families or those in need of extra space for guests, a home office, or a hobby room. With three living zones whether you want to relax with a book, entertain guests, or set up a play area for the kids, this home has ample space for it all. Step into a pristine environment with fresh paint that gives the entire home a modern, clean look. Inside you can stay comfortable year-round with a brand-new split system air conditioner and a ceiling fan. A wood fire heater to cozy up in the colder months. Outside enjoy the lush garden that has been meticulously maintained, providing a tranquil outdoor space for relaxation and gatherings. There's also a huge rear double garage & double carport that offers ample parking space for all your vehicles and an ample backyard to kick the ball around with the kids. Enjoy the convenience of being just a short stroll away from Stud Park shopping, dining, and entertainment options. It's positioned moments from schools, cafes & restaurants and is within easy access to both freeways. Make this house your forever home and enjoy the best that suburban living has to offer.
