SOLD by Mark Pipolo 0411 745 159 - Another Wanted Comfortable, convenient and filled with natural light, this first-floor studio apartment in the Tower Apartment building is sure to impress the discerning investor or someone searching for a low-maintenance lock-and-leave Melbourne base. Along with a cafe, restaurant, and the tram to La Trobe Uni, RMIT, and the CBD for work or play, it has the benefits of supermarkets, cafes, eateries, takeaways, gym...in fact, just about every lifestyle amenity within an easy walk. A stone finished kitchen featuring quality appliances, including a drawer dishwasher, anchors generous, flexible open-plan spaces where you can configure the furniture to suit your personal needs. Currently vacant and ready for short settlement. Complementing the living spaces, which open to a Juliette balcony, is a cleverly laid-out stone bathroom and a concealed laundry. Ready to live in or let out in an in-demand building within an in-demand location, this will not be around for long! Lift access and basement carpark on title also.
