An astute investment with amazing convenience, this immaculate vintage one bedroom first floor apartment is splashed with northern sun and an array of options. An affordable entry to both live in or let out, this solid brick starter has a security door entry, north facing living and dining area with panel heater, smart kitchen with Chef stove, private bedroom with built in robes and an original ensuite bathroom. Take advantage of the buzz in the market and get your foot in the door, as this savvy apartment is the perfect place to get you started, complete with stylish vertical blinds and a carport. In this smaller older style block, just around the corner from all the fabulous eateries and funky cafes at Glen Huntly Village, the city train to Monash University Caulfield and the 67 tram to Melbourne University; walk to the award winning Booran Reserve and exciting Koornang Park with its pool redevelopment.
