Nested within the distinguished suburb of Box Hill North, the unique modern townhouse-style apartment with a warm facade features bricks exploring the harmonious blend of tradition and modernity. Box Hill North is one of the best-serviced and most convenient suburban city in Melbourne. Only nearly 20km to the CBD. The Trawool set in Kerrimuir primary school and Koonung secondary college zone. A stroll from lifestyle amenities including the eastern freeway, Box Hill Central, Blackburn North Shopping Centre and Koonung Creek Trail. There are buses, trains and trams around the house, which can reach the center of Melbourne and most of the southeastern suburbs. The transportation is very convenient. It takes 4 minutes to drive to Boxhill Shopping Center and 8 minutes to reach Boxhill Shopping Center directly. The home features high quality interiors creating a sense of luxury throughout. Generous high ceiling and open style flexible living spaces with warm engineering timber flooring accommodate a variety of furniture configurations for livability. Abundance of natural light streams entering through the double glazing windows, makes each habitable space even more pleasant. Each home features well-proportioned spaces, sufficient storage and outstanding design to ensure ideal living standards. Now on offer is a two-bedroom apartment with a car park.
